THE ECUMENICAL ORDER OF CHRIST

Weekly Newsletter: 28th November - 4th December 2026

A season of watching, kept by the Church for centuries.

ADVENT: PREPARING FOR THE KING WHO HAS COME

Advent begins this Sunday, November 29th. For four weeks before Christmas, Christians light one candle after another and remember that the world waited a long time for its King. Yeshua told his disciples exactly how to wait: "Therefore you also be ready; for at an hour that you do not expect, the Son of Man will come" (Matthew 24:44, The Prime Bible).

Christ Has Returned invites us to keep this Advent in a new way. The book says the long wait of the Church has already been answered: "For forty Jubilees the Church waited," it says, and "God does not forget His own count" (Christ Has Returned, Ch. 1). It recounts that on January 28th, 2011, a light came down over the Temple Mount in Jerusalem, and that the King came again with a new name. If that is so, Advent is no longer only a season of waiting for a King who is coming. It becomes a season of preparing to meet a King who has come. We invite you to test it and judge for yourself.

So prepare as you would for a royal visit. Make peace where there is quarrel, give where there is need, and set aside time each day for Scripture and prayer. Paul's Advent call still stands: "The night is far gone; the day is at hand. So then let us cast off the works of darkness and put on the armor of light" (Romans 13:12, The Prime Bible).

Scripture of the Week

"A voice cries: In the wilderness prepare the way of YaHoVaH; make straight in the desert a highway for our God."

— Isaiah (Yeshayahu) 40:3 (The Prime Bible)

Before a king traveled, his servants went ahead to level the road, filling the hollows and clearing away every stone. Isaiah asks the same of the heart. This first week of Advent, look for one crooked place in your own life, a grudge, a habit or a neglected prayer, and make it straight. Read the verse aloud each morning, free at rayel.net/scripture.

One clergy member, and the gifts her household has testified to this month.

CLERGY SPOTLIGHT: CARDINAL VICTORIA HARR

This month we shine a light on Cardinal Victoria Harr. She and her husband, Cardinal Michael Harr, have publicly testified to more than one healing in their home.

Cardinal Victoria Harr

All her life Victoria lived with celiac disease and red-spectrum color blindness: to her, orange looked beige or brown, red looked gray, and pink looked beige. On November 7th, 2026, she testifies, she woke up and could see color. At first she thought she was hallucinating, until she realized she was seeing red, orange and pink properly for the first time. Cardinal Michael Harr tested her by holding things up and asking her to name the colors. In the days that followed she ate sandwiches and pizza with no reaction, when even a tiny bit of gluten used to bring her a lot of pain.

> "I am 99.9% sure that God has healed me of both celiac disease and being colorblind."
>
> — Victoria Harr, in her video testimony, November 8th, 2026

EARS OPENED, AND A FOURTH GIFT

Then came a further gift. Around November 11th, she was healed of partial deafness in her right ear, which she had suffered from since she was sixteen years old, after a severe illness. She reports, with a cheeky laugh, that her husband is more annoying now. Victoria gave thanks to God in Lord RayEl's name, saying, "I thought that everybody should know about this wonderful miracle."

Then, on the night of her anniversary, she was struck with severe gallbladder pain. Cardinal Michael Harr rushed her to hospital for tests, and the surgical team was getting her ready for surgery. While the Cardinals were on a Google Meet with Victoria, they prayed over her, and Victoria canceled the surgery, demanding more tests. Further tests proved she was once again healed and did not need surgery, something the hospital medical team are witness to.

We share her testimony as she and her household have given it. Give God the glory.

> "Then the eyes of the blind shall be opened, and the ears of the deaf unstopped..."
>
> — Isaiah (Yeshayahu) 35:5 (The Prime Bible)

THE GREAT JUBILEE: WHERE WE STAND

"Proclaim liberty throughout the land."

The Law commanded Israel to count seven sevens of years and then "consecrate the fiftieth year, and proclaim liberty throughout the land to all its inhabitants. It shall be a Jubilee for you, when each of you shall return to his property and each of you shall return to his clan" (Leviticus 25:10, The Prime Bible). In Issue 1 we set out how Christ Has Returned counts forty Jubilees, two thousand years, from the day Yeshua read the scroll at Nazareth, and arrives at 2026–2027 AD, the Hebrew year 5787, which began this past September.

The book gives a second marker as well. Counting forty Jubilees from the Crucifixion, Resurrection and Ascension in the spring of 30 AD, it arrives at the Hebrew year 5790, which runs from the autumn of 2029 to the autumn of 2030. In its words: "The fortieth Jubilee is therefore framed by two markers." And: "The years between them are the season we are living in now" (Christ Has Returned, Ch. 1). The book also notes that the Law sets the order: the horn of liberty sounds on the Day of Atonement, so "correction comes first, and then release" (Ch. 1).

> "Return to your possession. Return to your family. Return to the Father, through the Son He has sent back to you." — Christ Has Returned, Ch. 1

LORD RAYEL IN HIS OWN WORDS

At his anointing as King on Purim, March 20th, 2019

The book records that on Purim 2019 the Prophet Elijah anointed Lord RayEl as King, and that Lord RayEl then spoke to those gathered (Christ Has Returned, Ch. 6). In a week when Advent turns our eyes to the coming of the King, his words speak not of a throne to be served, but of a world to be repaired:

"My family…My saints…God has blessed us this day, with a Kingdom. With a world…that is ours…to repair. We…shall be the stewards. We will be… justice… incarnate."

— Lord RayEl · March 20th, 2019 · Christ Has Returned, Ch. 6

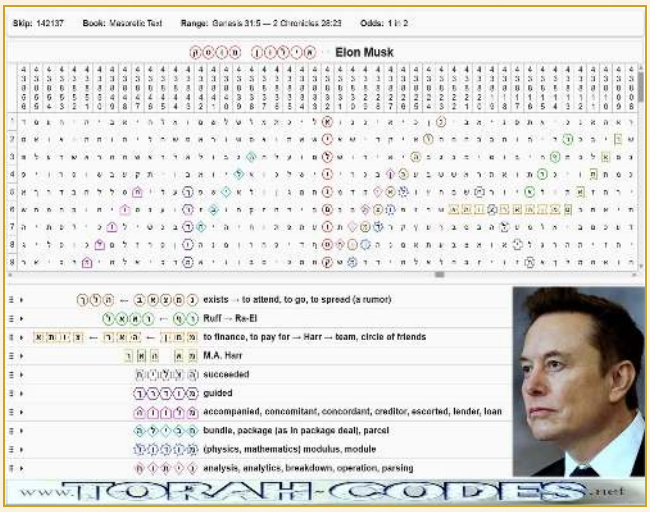
FROM THE TORAH CODES

This week's featured code: Elon Musk



Richard Ruff searched the Masoretic Text for Elon Musk, written in Hebrew as alon mosk (אלון מוסק), and found it at a skip of 142,137 letters, in a range running from Genesis 31:5 to 2 Chronicles 28:23.

Look at what sits in the same matrix: "Exists, to attend, to go, to spread (a rumor)." "Succeeded." "Guided." "(Physics, mathematics) modulus, module." "Analysis, analytics, breakdown, operation, parsing." And there, in the same block of letters, are "Ruff, Ra-El" and "M.A. Harr": Richard's own name beside the name of the Lord he serves, and the name of Cardinal Michael Harr.

The chart also records the words "to finance, to pay for, Harr, team, circle of friends"; "accompanied, concomitant, concordant, creditor, escorted, lender, loan"; and "bundle, package (as in package deal), parcel." As Richard has written: "I am not claiming Elon Musk has any connection to me, to the Harrs or to the Ecumenical Order of Christ. I report them as they appear. They are words in the code, not a deal, and I will not pretend otherwise." What the Torah does, he says, is place "the name of the man reaching for the stars beside the name of the Christ who has returned." Look at the chart, and judge for yourself. More codes are at torah-codes.net.

"declaring the end from the beginning and from ancient times things not yet done, saying, My counsel shall stand, and I will accomplish all My purpose,"
— Isaiah (Yeshayahu) 46:10 (The Prime Bible)
